MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Personnel

Bob:

Returned per our conversation. I agree with you that the main body of para 1 and para 2 should contain the language of Sub-para a, b, and c are new (copied from State) and look all right to me but since they were not discussed in the PAB meeting some coordination may be needed. This should not be difficult.

I don't know the basis for the effective date but, as stated, I believe it could be subject to more than one interpretation. It could possibly mean the date of orders ^{of} personnel action -- sometimes a considerable difference in time, or it could mean the date of departure or arrival.

Remarks: Mr. Bannerman wants to see and approve the proposed Notice on "Limitation on Home Leave". Before presenting it to him, I believe we should deal with the subject which was discussed but not decided in the Personnel Advisory Board Meeting. That is, who is not eligible for home leave because he has a relatively short time to serve before becoming eligible for retirement? This draft Notice does not seem to answer this question. If it is answered in paragraph 4 [] it seems rather well hidden, and I do not believe we should expect our people who will read the Notice to have handy for reading a copy [] I will present this to Mr. Bannerman in whatever form you prefer, but I believe (over)

the above question is certain to arise and, at this point,
I am unable to answer it.

In view of the time required to prepare and
